

Akote Edeke Ministries is sharing the praises of what God is doing through weekly Discovery Bible Studies.

The village of Asinge-Omid has people who are thirsty for the Word of God. Let their willingness to gather in a field - challenge us to open our Bibles today wherever we are.

We have a great need for partners to help us reach more people with the love of Jesus Christ.

planting love - harvesting hope

Your gift today will help fund the costs of getting our team and volunteers to these remote villages each week to share God's Word. It takes a village! Be a blessing and join us today.
